Roundtable

Dian Wright: Water bottles - PSAC national convention last week and a couple of Locals (Toronto North, East, West, Centre) talking to promoters - ordered water bottles that PSAC was given out (500 ordered). NPSW could be a good time to give out water bottles and encourage everyone to not go get their sandwich. Wear a sandwich board and have handouts - fair deal or sandwich - contract or sandwich. Everyone should wear red.

Jim Weir: It is nice to be here and be a part of it.

Ben Miller: Thanks everyone. The next year will be a challenge but we will make a good team.

Linda Collins: Welcome to the fold, you will be busy. Yves will be a steward and it will be great to have him grievance trained. Try to work together and hopefully they are over now. We have a strong team. Management really respects us for what we are doing and as a Local and we have a good reputation among all of the offices. We can get a lot accomplished for our membership. There are issues with the contract but that is not management's fault. They get us heavily involved in all of the committees. Mental health committee will be very important and we are doing pretty good. The election is coming in March and some people will not be running again so the Local can continue. Thanks for everyone's hard work and support. Let's carry on with the family we can be.

Adjournment

The meeting adjourned at 6:45 pm.
